

FREE 12-WEEK CULINARY ARTS TRAINING

Are you Looking for a Job in Food Service??

Next class to begin February 2015

- 12 –week Culinary Arts Training program-learn about different jobs in food service, improve your skills to obtain a job, gain work experience and build confidence!
- Classroom instruction at the Woonsocket Area Career and Tech Center ~ 400 Aylsworth Avenue, Woonsocket
- Receive job readiness skills, financial literacy education, case management , and career coaching.
- Earn an unpaid internship of (100 hours) at one of our employer partners, to gain experience in the kitchen.
- Work with a job developer to seek employment.
- Participate in job fairs and scheduled job clubs to help you find a job.
- Receive the National Restaurant Association’s ServSafe® Managers Certification, and 4 additional industry certifications, if passed

Who is Eligible?

- Unemployed and underemployed individuals looking to improve their skills and find a job in food service.
- Participants receiving SNAP (food stamps)
- Rhode Island resident
- Must be at least 18 years old (valid identification required).
- Other program requirements.

Committed and motivated individuals encouraged to apply!

Call immediately for dates of information sessions and how to apply for the next class!

Next Class:

⇒ February 2015

Call to Apply!!766-3384

Funding provided by the:

Governor’s Workforce Board
Rhode Island

Today’s Vision... Tomorrow’s Opportunity.

For more information contact Heidi Collins, Director Center for Financial Success 46 Hope Street Woonsocket, RI 02895 ~ (401)766-3384 or hcollins@ccfcenter.org
www.ccfcenter.org